Policy Reviewed: 2 May 2024

Next Review Date: May 2025

Policy Aims:

Artists Attic Trust has a duty of care to promote the wellbeing of and safeguard from harm all children (anyone under 18 years) who are involved in its activities. All children have a right to protection.

This policy sets out the roles and responsibilities of Artists Attic Trust in working with other individuals and organisations to ensure the safety and protection of all children who are involved in our activities.

All office holders, staff and volunteers of Artists Attic Trust are expected to understand their responsibilities to safeguard children and follow this policy and procedures.

Definitions

What is safeguarding children?

A child is a child before their birth (i.e. during pregnancy) and until their 18th Birthday (as defined in the Children's Act 1989).

Safeguarding children refers to the protection of children and young people from abuse or neglect. Abuse is a form of maltreatment of a child. Somebody may abuse or neglect a child by inflicting harm, or by failing to act to prevent harm. Children may be abused in a family or in an institutional or community setting by those known to them or, more rarely, by others. Abuse can take place wholly online, or technology may be used to facilitate offline abuse. Children may be abused by an adult or adults, or another child or children.

Definition sourced from (Working together to Safeguard Children 2018).

There is a duty placed on public agencies under the Human Rights Act 1998 to intervene to protect the rights of citizens. The Children Act (1989 and 2004) also makes it clear that the welfare of the child is paramount and everyone involved in the care of children has the responsibility to protect those children from harm.

Legislation sets out 4 categories of child abuse (many other forms of abuse exist but these categories are used for reporting to Children's Social Care):

- 1) Physical Abuse
- 2) Neglect
- 3) Sexual Abuse
- 4) Emotional Abuse (see Procedures for full definitions)

Where this policy or the associated procedures refer to 'staff' this includes anyone employed by Artists Attic Trust either through the payroll, on a freelance basis, contributing artists or as a volunteer, including trustees and committee members. It refers to anyone engaged in the planning and delivery of activities linked to children on behalf of Artists Attic Trust.

We will enable all our staff and those who work with us to make informed and confident decisions regarding safeguarding issues and take all suspicions and allegations of abuse seriously. We expect everyone at Artists Attic Trust to have read, understood and adhere to our safeguarding procedures.

We will endeavour to safeguard children at risk by:

- Valuing them, listening to and respecting them
- Being vigilant
- Being accountable – never assuming someone else will take action
- To act within 24 hours if concerned or contact emergency services
- Adopting this policy and adhering to our associated procedures and code of conduct for staff;
- Ensuring we have a safer recruitment process for every person recruited by Artists Attic Trust and ensuring all the applicable checks are made.
- Providing effective management of staff and volunteers through supervision, support and training;
- Ensuring organisations we contract or partners have appropriate safeguarding policies and procedures in place;
- Sharing information about safeguarding good practice with freelance staff, volunteers, and other relevant parties;
- Reviewing this policy and procedures and updating at least once a year and in line with any new legislation.

Consent, Confidentiality and Information Sharing

The Child Safeguarding Lead will be responsible for making decisions about sharing information with external agencies including the police and local authority. The contact details for the Safeguarding Lead can be found on wall notices in the premises and in this Safeguarding Policy published on the website.

Safer Recruitment

Artists Attic Trust aims to do everything possible to minimise the risk of involving unsuitable people in our work with children.

All staff and volunteers will have clear role descriptions which will be assessed for regulated activity.

DBS checks will be undertaken for individuals who are involved in regulated activity with children as part of their role with Artists Attic Trust. DBS certificates will be updated every 2 years.

We will carry out safer recruitment practices for all volunteers and staff including adverts which explicitly state the importance of child safeguarding to the organisation, an application form which also clearly states the importance, obtaining good quality references, undertaking interviews and probationary periods for any relevant positions.

Any changes to our safer recruitment processes will be approved by the trustees.

Training

All staff and volunteers will undertake the Kirklees Safeguarding Children Partnership's (KSCP) Awareness of Child Abuse and Neglect e-learning course every 3 years

The safeguarding lead will undertake the Kirklees 'Working Together to Safeguard Children Foundation Course' or equivalent Designated Safeguarding Lead course and then the refresher course every three years.

Reporting a Concern

If someone in Artists Attic Trust believes a child to be in imminent danger they must ring 999 immediately and ask for the Police.

Any other safeguarding concern should be reported to the Safeguarding Lead within one day, in line with our safeguarding procedures (see appendix 1). In the absence of the Safeguarding Lead then a Trustee should be informed.

Managing Allegations

Any allegation made against a member of staff or volunteer will be investigated as a matter of urgency and the staff/volunteer may be required to be suspended during the investigation. Any suspicion that a child has been abused by a member of staff or a volunteer must be reported to the Safeguarding Lead who will take the necessary steps to ensure the safety of the child and any other child who may be at risk. The safeguarding procedures will be followed which involve referring the allegation to Children's Social Care and the Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO) <https://www.kirklees.gov.uk/beta/working-with-children/lado.aspx> who may involve the police. If the Concerns Manager is the subject of the allegation then the concern must be made directly to Children's Social Care and the LADO whose responsibility it is to:

- Provide advice and guidance
- Liaise with the police and other agencies

- Provide assistance regarding suspension and referral to the Disclosure and Barring Service.

This may then result in a criminal investigation, safeguarding investigation and/or disciplinary or misconduct investigation.

Whistleblowing

All staff and volunteers should feel able to raise concerns about poor safeguarding practice within Artists Attic and concerns will be taken seriously by the trustees. Appropriate Whistleblowing procedures are in place and can be found in the Whistleblowing policy.

Early Support

Safeguarding is also about prevention and recognising when a family may benefit from Early Support, <https://www.kirkleessafeguardingchildren.co.uk/safeguarding-2/early-support/> providing interventions to build resilience amongst children, young people and their families – particularly those that may be vulnerable. Where appropriate we will support families to access support from Kirklees Council's Early Support Service as well as Early Support Partners such as Thriving Kirklees <https://www.thrivingkirklees.org.uk/>

The basic premise of Artists Attic Trust is the beneficial effect of creative activity on the mental wellness of the individual. The importance of healthy eating and exercise is used as a focal point of creative activities whenever possible. APPENDIX 2

DEFINITIONS (Taken from 'Working Together to Safeguard Children 2018')

Children

Anyone who has not yet reached their 18th birthday. The fact that a child has reached 16 years of age, is living independently or is in further education, is a member of the armed forces, is in hospital or in custody in the secure estate, does not change their status or entitlements to services or protection.

Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children

Defined for the purposes of this guidance as:

- a. protecting children from maltreatment
- b. preventing impairment of children's health or development
- c. ensuring that children are growing up in circumstances consistent with the provision of safe and effective care
- d. taking action to enable all children to have the best outcomes

Child Protection

Part of safeguarding and promoting welfare. This refers to the activity that is undertaken to protect specific children who are suffering, or are likely to suffer, significant harm.

Abuse

A form of maltreatment of a child. Somebody may abuse or neglect a child by inflicting harm, or by failing to act to prevent harm. Children may be abused in a family or in an institutional or community setting by those known to them or, more rarely, by others. Abuse can take place wholly online, or technology may be used to facilitate offline abuse. Children may be abused by an adult or adults, or another child or children

Physical Abuse

A form of abuse which may involve hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, burning or scalding, drowning, suffocating or otherwise causing physical harm to a child. Physical harm may also be caused when a parent or carer fabricates the symptoms of, or deliberately induces, illness in a child.

Emotional Abuse

The persistent emotional maltreatment of a child such as to cause severe and persistent adverse effects on the child's emotional development. It may involve conveying to a child that they are worthless or unloved, inadequate, or valued only insofar as they meet the needs of another person. It may include not giving the child opportunities to express their views, deliberately silencing them or inappropriate expectations being imposed on children. These may include interactions that are beyond a child's developmental capability, as well as overprotection and limitation of exploration and learning, or preventing the child participating in normal social interaction. It may involve seeing or hearing the ill-treatment of another. It may involve serious bullying (including cyber bullying), causing children frequently to feel frightened or in danger, or the exploitation or corruption of children. Some level of emotional abuse is involved in all types of maltreatment of a child, though it may occur alone.

Sexual Abuse

Involves forcing or enticing a child or young person to take part in sexual activities, not necessarily involving a high level of violence, whether or not the child is aware of what is happening. The activities may involve physical contact, including assault by penetration (for example, rape or oral sex) or non-penetrative acts such as masturbation, kissing, rubbing and touching outside of clothing. They may also include non-contact activities, such as involving children in looking at, or in the production of, sexual images, watching sexual activities, encouraging children to behave in sexually inappropriate ways, or grooming a child in preparation for abuse. Sexual abuse can take place online, and technology can be used to facilitate offline abuse. Sexual abuse is not solely perpetrated by adult males. Women can also commit acts of sexual abuse, as can other children.

Child Sexual Exploitation

Child sexual exploitation is a form of child sexual abuse. It occurs where an individual or group takes advantage of an imbalance of power to coerce, manipulate or deceive a child or young person under the age of 18 into sexual activity (a) in exchange for something the victim needs or wants, and/or (b) for the financial advantage or increased status of the perpetrator or facilitator. The victim may have been sexually exploited even if the sexual activity appears consensual. Child sexual exploitation does not always involve physical contact; it can also occur through the use of technology.

Neglect

The persistent failure to meet a child's basic physical and/or psychological needs, likely to result in the serious impairment of the child's health or development. Neglect may occur during pregnancy as a result of maternal substance abuse. Once a child is born, neglect may involve a parent or carer failing to:

- a. provide adequate food, clothing and shelter (including exclusion from home or abandonment)
- b. protect a child from physical and emotional harm or danger
- c. ensure adequate supervision (including the use of inadequate care-givers)
- d. ensure access to appropriate medical care or treatment

It may also include neglect of, or unresponsiveness to, a child's basic emotional needs.

Extremism/ Prevent

Extremism goes beyond terrorism and includes people who target the vulnerable – including the young – by seeking to sow division between communities on the basis of race, faith or denomination; justify discrimination towards women and girls; persuade others that minorities are inferior; or argue against the primacy of democracy and the rule of law in our society.

Extremism is defined in the Counter Extremism Strategy 2015 as the vocal or active opposition to our fundamental values, including the rule of law, individual liberty and the mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs. We also regard calls for the death of members of our armed forces as extremist.

The Kirklees Prevent Strategy tackles all forms of extremism and the Kirklees Prevent Hub is the main point of contact for concerns across Kirklees.

Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO)

County level and unitary local authorities should ensure that allegations against people who work with children are not dealt with in isolation. Any action necessary to address corresponding welfare concerns in relation to the child or children involved should be taken without delay and in a coordinated manner. Local authorities should, in addition, have designated a particular officer, or team of officers (either as part of multi-agency arrangements or otherwise), to be involved in the management and oversight of allegations against people who work with children. Any such officer, or team of officers, should be sufficiently qualified and experienced to be able to fulfil this role effectively, for example qualified social workers. Arrangements should be put in place to ensure that any allegations about those who work with children are passed to the designated officer, or team of officers, without delay.

County Lines

As set out in the Serious Violence Strategy, published by the Home Office, a term used to describe gangs and organised criminal networks involved in exporting illegal drugs into one or more importing areas within the UK, using dedicated mobile phone lines or other form of 'deal line'. They are likely to exploit children and vulnerable adults to move and store the drugs and money, and they will often use coercion, intimidation, violence (including sexual violence) and weapons.

Child Crime Exploitation

As set out in the Serious Violence Strategy, published by the Home Office, where an individual or group takes advantage of an imbalance of power to coerce, control, manipulate or deceive a child or young person under the age of 18 into any criminal activity (a) in exchange for something the victim needs or wants, and/or (b) for the financial or other advantage of the perpetrator or facilitator and/or (c) through violence or the threat of violence. The victim may have been criminally exploited even if the activity appears consensual. Child criminal exploitation does not always involve physical contact; it can also occur through the use of technology.

Female Genital Mutilation

Female Genital Mutilation (FGM) is the collective term for all procedures involving partial or total removal of the external genitalia or other injury to the female genital organs for non-medical reasons. FGM is a form of child abuse and is illegal in the UK.

Potential Signs and Indicators of Abuse and Neglect (remember these are just indicators – a child may show these signs and may not be being abused):

- Unexplained or suspicious injuries such as bruising, cuts, or burns, particularly if situated on a part of the body not normally prone to such injuries, or the explanation of the cause of the injury is ill-fitting.
- A disclosure of abuse, or description of what appears to be an abusive act by a child or adult at risk.
- Someone else (child or adult) expresses concern about the welfare of another child.
- Unexplained change in behaviour, such as withdrawal or sudden outbursts of temper.

- Inappropriate sexual awareness or sexually explicit behaviour.
- Distrust of a particular individual, particularly those with whom a close relationship would normally be expected.
- Difficulty in making friends
- Eating disorders, depression, self-harm or suicide attempts.
- Deterioration in health or appearance including loss of weight.
- Unexplained loss of money or material goods (financial abuse)
- Unexplained possession of money or goods such as mobile phones (child sexual exploitation)
- Fear or anxiety

This is not an exhaustive list of possible indicators of abuse.
